

WHAT'S NEW APRIL 2006

KENTUCKY SMALL & FARM WINERIES

Recently it has come to the attention of the ABC, that some small and farm wineries may be confused about when it's legal to give free or complimentary samples of wine to the public. Therefore, we would like to take this opportunity to clear up any misconceptions you may have regarding this issue.

First, Kentucky laws KRS 243.155(1) (b) and 243.156(1) (b) allow small wineries to give 6 oz. and farm wineries to give 4 oz. free or complimentary samples of the wine they produce when a patron or customer visits their licensed winery premises. This privilege is also extended to the licensed premises where wineries may hold an off-premises retail site license. This means there are only two (2) places a small or farm winery may give free samples and both of these locations must be licensed by the winery.

Second, Kentucky laws KRS 243.155 (1) (c) and 243.156 (1) (g) allow small and farm wineries to sell wine produced by their winery at fairs, festivals, or other similar types of events in wet territories. Wineries may not give free or complimentary samples at these events.

Lastly, we have received numerous questions regarding what qualifies as approved "similar types of events". It might be easier to list what does not qualify as an approved event. Wedding receptions, yard sales and private parties are not approved events. If you are in doubt about an event please contact our Administrators at (502) 564-4850 for guidance.
